Dear Juliana,

Hello! How are you? I'm doing great, I hope you too. I'm writing this e-mail to tell you about something super funny that happened to me during my visit to Italy this last summer holidays.

Do you remember that I went to Naples in Italy? Well, I went there with my family, we travelled by plane, of course, it's impossible to get to Italy by car from Argentina! We stayed in a huge and beautiful house near one of the main streets of the city, it was very noisy and there was always something to do. We stayed there for ten days, but I wish we stayed there for more time. On the first day I visited a very famous museum called "Capodimonte" it's full of old paintings and cool sculptures, my sister didn't like it, she thought it was boring, but my parents loved it, for them it was amazing and the best part of the trip. On the second day we visited the Naples football club stadium, it's full of pictures of Maradona, everyone loves him there, if they find out you are from Argentina they give you gifts and free stuff, it's crazy!

On the third day something crazy happened, we got up late that day because we were tired and we decided to go for a walk, I was walking down the street with my dad and my sister, we saw an ice cream shop and decided to buy some, while my mom was at the super market buying some food for dinner. While we were walking and enjoying our ice creams a group of dogs appeared out of nowhere, one of them looked very friendly so my sister pet him, but while she was petting the dog the others took advantage and stole the ice cream! It was really funny, after that my sister bought 2 more ice creams, ate one and gave the extra one to the dogs. I hope you found this anecdote as funny as me.

Write to me soon, Manu.
