

Sarah loved her cat Fluffy very much. He was a little brown cat who loved to climb trees. On Saturday, Sarah was playing in her room. She decided to look for Fluffy. She looked in the kitchen. She looked in her room and under the bed. She could not find Fluffy. She was sad. She looked everywhere. Sarah was getting very worried. She sat down to make a lost poster. Suddenly, there was a knock at the door. It was her neighbor, Mr. Dan. He had found Fluffy climbing the tree in his yard. Sarah hugged Fluffy. She was so glad he was home.

Characters in the story. _____

Setting of the story _____

Problem of the story _____

Solution of the story _____