

Spotlight 6

Pronouns

Task 6323

Read attentively the short dialogues and put in the necessary words (my, mine, hers, etc.).

1. — Your brother Pete says it's his bicycle. — No, it is not _____! It's _____! My Dad bought it to me a week ago! — OK. If you say it's _____, let it be _____ ... May I ride it right now?
2. My little dog, come to me, come here, come! — Oh, please, don't tell us this nice little dog is _____! — But it is really _____! Why do you think it's not _____ dog? — It doesn't look like you! And all dogs usually look like _____ masters (= owners). This dog looks like Lisa. We think it's _____!
3. — Look, I'm sure, this is their house. — Why do you think it's _____?
4. — Your sister Jane says it's _____ bicycle. — Yes, it is. It's _____! Our Dad bought it to her yesterday. Look! And mine is over there! I like _____ bicycle more.
5. — Is it your ball? — No, it is not. It's not _____. Isn't it Peter's ball? — Well, probably it's _____. Let us ask _____. — Pete! Pete! Isn't it your ball? Can we take _____? He doesn't hear me ... — Look, a girl is running here. The ball may be _____! Hey, girl! Isn't this ball _____?
6. — Look, I'm sure, this is not their car. — Why do you think it's not _____? — They've got a Lada. And _____ is a Logan.

After finishing the task, enjoy the view:

Autumn in Kolomna