

Read this conversation and underline if or when.

Liz: I'm going to walk to the station to catch the London train.

Dan: But it may rain. Why not get a taxi?

Liz: Don't worry, I'll use my umbrella 1 if/when it rains.

Dan: Well, hurry up! 2 If/When you don't leave now, the train will go without you.

Liz: OK, I'm going. Goodbye.

Dan: Will you phone me 3 if/when you arrive in London?

Liz: I'll try to phone from the hotel 4 if/when I have time before my first meeting.

Dan: Leave a message 5 if/when I'm not in. I might be at the shops. Bye.

Liz: Bye.

