

Worms and Sea Jellies

1. Choose the correct option: True or false?

- a. Worms breathe through their skin.
- b. Worms have segments with muscles and bristles called setae.
- c. Worms that can live in land are called leeches.
- d. Worms are short and small. They can't be longer than a swimming pool.
- e. Worms help the soil oxygenate because they transport nutrients and minerals.

2. Complete the sentences with the correct information in the right place:

Cold and warm

Even before dinosaurs

Some Jelly fish can even glow!

- a. Jelly fish have lived for many years. _____
- b. They can live in both _____ water.
- c. Jelly fish can be all kinds of colours: blue, pink, yellow, and purple. _____

3. Choose the information with the correct group of invertebrates: WORMS or SEA JELLIES.

They have got long and soft bodies

They have got tentacles with stinging cells.

They can live in both land and water.

They haven't got legs. So they crawl.

They haven't got brains, heart, eyes or lungs.

They live in shallow and deep waters.

