

Unit 3: Robinson Crusoe Discovers a Footprint

Number the pictures in the correct order of the story.

Sequence the story of Robinson Crusoe in the correct order.

One day, Crusoe discovered a strange footprint on the shore.

Crusoe went back to the ship and gathered food and tools to help him survive on the island.

He was frightened for his life.

After Robinson Crusoe's ship was destroyed by a storm, he and a dog were washed ashore on a lonely island.

He made a place to live inside a sheltered cave.

After a few days, Crusoe went to check the footprint and realised that it was not made by him.

Crusoe started to believe that the island was inhabited!
