

LANGUAGE DIFFERENCES

Observa las diferentes palabras utilizadas en US y UK. Después completa las oraciones de abajo con las palabras correctas.

British
chips

American
french fries
/frɛnʃ 'fraɪz/

British
crisps

American
potato chips
/pə'to:təʊ 'tʃɪps/

British
biscuit

American
cookie /kʊki/

British
sweets

American
candy /kændi/

British
car park

American
parking lot /pɑ:kɪŋ ,lɑ:t/

British
timetable /tɪmə'teɪbl/

a list of the times when something (e.g. bus, train, or airplane) is expected to leave or arrive.

British
rubber /rə'bə/

a small piece of rubber that is used to erase something that has been written or drawn

British
post /pəʊst/

a system of sending letters and packages from one person to another

British
petrol /pə'trəʊl/

American
gas /gæs/

1. American people don't say _____, they say schedule.
2. American people don't say crisps, they say _____.
3. American people say _____, they don't say car park.
4. American people say cookie, they don't say _____.
5. American people say mail, they don't say _____.
6. British people don't say _____, they say rubber.
7. British people don't say French fries, they say _____.
8. British people don't say gas, they say _____.
9. British people say _____, they don't say candy.
10. British people say crisps, they don't say _____.