GRAMMAR

GRAMMAR CHECK

Adverbs of manner

We use adverbs of manner to talk about how we do things.

They speak Italian badly.

They arrive home happily.

To make regular adverbs we add –ly to the adjective.

bad – badly

Adjectives that end in –y change to –ily.

happy – happily

Some adverbs are irregular.

He speaks Italian well. (adj. good)

He runs fast. (adj. fast)

7 Complete these sentences with adverbs of manner.

a The professor comes home excitedly (excited) with an old book.

b He goes out for a walk ..... (angry) when he can't understand the secret message.

c He and Axel leave home ..... (quick) because their train leaves at six o'clock.

d Axel looks up at Snæfells ..... (worried).

e He eats dinner ..... (hungry) at Mr Fridrikssen's house.

f Axel and the professor find a good guide ..... (easy) with Mr Fridrikssen's help.

g The professor tells Hans ..... (quiet) about his plan.

h Hans, the professor, and Axel go down into the crater ..... (slow).

i Hans walks ..... (fast) down the tunnel.

j They drink the water from the tunnel wall ..... (thirsty).

k The professor looks ..... (careful) at the rocks.

l Hans makes the raft ..... (good).

m Axel marries Gräuben ..... (happy) when he's back in Hamburg.

