

VOCABULARY ABOUT FILMS AND BOOKS

1. Choose the correct option.

1. The beginning / hit of the book is often more interesting than the ending.
2. The film was a review / hit at the box office and made a lot of money.
3. The newspaper has online reviews / endings of new films every week.
4. The film was very popular, but it didn't win any bestsellers / awards.
5. This bestseller / scene won the prize for the most popular novel of the year.
6. The ending / beginning was disappointing – I wanted it to finish differently.

2. Complete the crossword.

Across

3. the place where a book, film, etc. takes place
5. a person who writes reviews of films and books
6. a section of a book
7. a person or company that helps people to write books and then sells them to shops

Down

1. a person who tells the story in a book or film
2. a person who runs a magazine or helps a person to write a book
4. a person who writes a story that is long enough for a complete book about things that are not real
7. the events that make the story in a book or film

3. Complete the text with the correct words from exercises 1 and 2.

78
POSTS

121
FOLLOWERS

23
FOLLOWING

Have you read the novel Wonder? It was written by the (1) _____, R. J. Palacio. Wonder is a (2) _____ because it has sold millions of copies! Critics have given it amazing (3) _____, and it's won lots of (4) _____, too. The (5) _____ of Wonder is the story of Auggie Pullman, a young boy who has a serious medical problem that affects the appearance of his face.

Other children are very unkind to him. At the (6) _____ of the story, Auggie is preparing to start school for the first time, and, as the story progresses, he learns to adapt to school life and make friends. The novel has several (7) _____, including Auggie, his sister and his best friend, Jack; they all tell the story from their own point of view. Auggie's school is the (8) _____ for most of the book, but there is one terrifying (9) _____ at a school camp. Fortunately, Auggie's friends are able to protect him.

Wonder teaches us a lot about the importance of life. By the time you read the (10) _____, you'll love Auggie and all his friends.

4. Listen and choose the correct picture

1 Two friends are talking about a film. What did the man think of it?

A

B

C

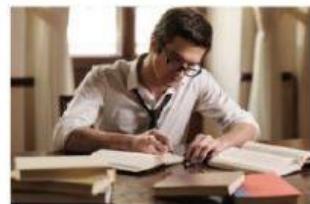

2 A woman is talking to a man about her brother. What is her brother's job?

A

B

C

3 A father and daughter are discussing a film they saw. What did his daughter like best about it?

A

B

C

