

1. Correct the words in italics.

1 He mustn't have been the thief! He was in Paris the night of the burglary.

2 Why didn't you call me? You would have called me as soon as you learnt the news.

3 I don't know why he's late. He might has missed the bus. _____

4 Would have Peter helped us if he'd known? _____

2. Circle the correct words.

A: Oh, no! You (1) can't / must / should have told me that you wanted to use the camera today!

B: Why? Where is it? Don't tell me it isn't here! I was looking forward (2) to / in / at using it! And I need it. How did you decide (3) to giving / to give / giving it to Patrick without asking me first?

A: I'm really sorry. Patrick (4) may not / doesn't / mustn't have gone to bed yet. I'll give him a call.

A: Sue and Paul (5) must / can / should have arrived by now. Do you think something is wrong?

B: No, they may have felt like (6) to take / at taking / taking a later bus. Let's give them a call.

A: Sure, I will. Do you think they (7) must / are / may have forgotten about the party, though?

B: No, I'm sure they intend (8) to come / coming / at coming. I spoke to Sue this morning.

3. Write the verbs in the correct form.

1 _____ (you / would / come) with us to the opera if I'd asked you?

2 Lee _____ (can't / see) you. That's why she didn't say 'hi'.

3 The drama teacher might have decided _____ (choose) Karen if she had practised for the part.

4 He _____ (must / hear) the thief and that's why he hid in the cupboard.

5 Where _____ (these exhibits / could / come) from? It's a mystery.

6 Kim doesn't remember _____ (go) rock-climbing for the first time.

7 Patricia is very good at _____ (act) and she wants to be an actress.

4. Rewrite the sentences using the word given.

1 I'm absolutely sure that Nick didn't take your laptop.

CAN'T

Nick _____ your laptop.

2 It's possible that Fillip has forgotten about the meeting.

MAY

Fillip _____ about the meeting.

3 How do you think Bob felt when he learnt the news?

COULD

How _____ when he learnt the news?

6 Terry didn't know about the new play and that's why he didn't take part. WOULD
Terry _____ part in the play if he'd known about it.

7 I'm angry that you didn't tell me about the exhibition at the gallery.

SHOULD

You _____ me about the exhibition at the gallery.