1. Correct the words in italics.

1 He mustn't have been the thief! He was in Paris the night of the burglary.
2 Why didn't you call me? You would have called me as soon as you learnt the news.
3 I don't know why he's late. He might has missed the bus 4 Would have Peter helped us if he'd known?
2. Circle the correct words.
A: Oh, no! You (1) can't / must / should have told me that you wanted to use the camer today!
B: Why? Where is it? Don't tell me it isn't here! I was looking forward (2) to / in / at usin it! And I need it. How did you decide (3) to giving / to give / giving it to Patrick without asking me first?	g
A: I'm really sorry. Patrick (4) may not / doesn't / mustn't have gone to bed yet. I'll give him a call.
A: Sue and Paul (5) must / can / should have arrived by now. Do you think something is wrong?	s
B : No, they may have felt like (6) to take / at taking / taking a later bus. Let's give them a call.
A: Sure, I will. Do you think they (7) must / are / may have forgotten about the party, though?
B: No, I'm sure they intend (8) to come / coming / at coming. I spoke to Sue this morning.
3. Write the verbs in the correct form.
1 (you / would / come) with us to the opera if I'd asked you?
2 Lee (can't / see) you. That's why she didn't say 'hi'. 3 The drama teacher might have decided (choose) Karen if she had practised for the part.
4 He (must / hear) the thief and that's why he hid in the cupboard. (these exhibits / could / come) from? It's a mystery
5 Where (these exhibits / could / come) from? It's a mystery. 6 Kim doesn't remember (go) rock-climbing for the first time.
6 Kim doesn't remember (go) rock-climbing for the first time. 7 Patricia is very good at (act) and she wants to be an actress.
4. Rewrite the sentences using the word given.
1 I'm absolutely sure that Nick didn't take your laptop. CAN'T Nick your laptop.
2 It's possible that Fillip has forgotten about the meeting. MAY
Fillip about the meeting.
3 How do you think Bob felt when he learnt the news?

COULD
How	when he learnt the news?
6 Terry didn't know about th	e new play and that's why he didn't take part. WOULD
Terry	part in the play if he'd known about it.
7 I'm angry that you didn't te	ell me about the exhibition at the gallery.
SHOULD	,
You	me about the exhibition at the gallery.