Tone and Mood

Tone: How the author thinks about a subject (in their mind).

Mood: How a reader feels about a text or subject (in their hearts).

Certain events that happen can put people in a good mood or a bad mood. There are many words an author can use to describe specific moods.

Directions: Read each sentence and decide which mood word best describes how the person would feel.

1. I feel _____ because my brother won $100 in the contest.

2. I feel _____ because I got a new puppy yesterday.

3. I feel _____because I got lost at the mall.

4. I feel _____ because I stayed up too late last night.

5. I feel _____ because my mom gave me ice cream. a.

6. I feel _____ because my new puppy ran away.

Write about a time when you felt excited: