Moses Serves God

6.3

Match each plague to an effect. Refer to Exodus 7:17–11:7 and the information discussed in class.

1. hail

a. proved that Heqt, an Egyptian goddess with a frog's head, was not worthy of worship

2. diseased livestock

b. showed that the Egyptian sun god, Amon-Ra, was not as powerful as the God of the Hebrews

3. frogs

c. demonstrated that the Egyptian river gods were unable to protect the source of water, the Nile River

4. lice (or gnats)

d. ate what was left of the crops, leaving nothing for people or animals, showing the powerlessness of the goddess of life, Isis, and the god of crops, Seth

5. flies

e. showed the Egyptian god of medicine, Imhotep, and the Pharaoh's court magicians to be powerless

6. boils

f. kept the Egyptians from sacrificing their livestock because the priests and the animals were infested and unclean

7. darkness

g. was an insult to Hathor, the mother-goddess of Egypt, who was represented by a cow

8. locusts

h. broke down and crushed stems of grain, showing that the goddess Isis and the god Seth were powerless

9. waters become blood

i. similar to the plague of lice (gnats); spread filth and disease

10. death of the firstborn

j. took the life of Pharaoh's child; proved Osiris, the Egyptian giver of life, to be false and powerless
