The Ice Cream Disaster

My day started out great! I woke up to the sound of the birds. I knew my Grandma was making bacon for breakfast. I love bacon!

We went to the beach near my Grandma's house. Grandma promised that I could get some ice cream from the Snack Bar. I built four sandcastles and swam in the water with my friend Todd.

Then, Grandma gave me the money and I bought an ice cream cone.

Finally, the ice cream melted because of the sun. I was really sad but I had a nice day at the beach with my friend Todd.
