

Name: _____

Date: _____

Subject: Language

Topic: Types of Sentences

A Declarative sentence gives a statement. (.)

An Interrogative sentence ask a question. (?)

An Imperative sentence gives a command. (.)

An Exclamatory sentence shows excitement. (!)

Chose whether each sentence is either declarative, interrogative, imperative, or exclamatory.

1. Will you help me with this math problem?	Declarative Interrogative	Imperative Exclamatory
2. I can't wait to go to IMAX this mid-term break!	Declarative Interrogative	Imperative Exclamatory
3. Don't step on my foot.	Declarative Interrogative	Imperative Exclamatory
4. Move the table into the corner as quickly as possible.	Declarative Interrogative	Imperative Exclamatory
5. The students wanted to go on the field trip.	Declarative Interrogative	Imperative Exclamatory
6. Who is the most popular singer?	Declarative Interrogative	Imperative Exclamatory
7. I'm so excited I passed the text!	Declarative Interrogative	Imperative Exclamatory
8. We went diving in Cat Island.	Declarative Interrogative	Imperative Exclamatory
9. Help your sister tie her shoes.	Declarative Interrogative	Imperative Exclamatory
10. This weekend will be fantastic!	Declarative Interrogative	Imperative Exclamatory