GRAMMAR PRACTICE

A) PASSIVE VOICE

Turn the following sentence into the passive voice.

1) You should send your complaints to the customer's service.

Your complaints……

2) 'They are signing the divorce papers'.

The divorce papers .....

3) 'A group of fishermen caught a shark off the coasts of Australia '.

A shark ……

B) MODAL VERBS

Rewrite the sentence using a modal verb. Do not change the meaning of the original sentence.

1) 'Perhaps she's a nice person to live with'.

She ……

2) 'Workers are not allowed to have tattoos'.

Workers ……

3) My advice is that you tell her the truth.

You ……

C) ONE WORD MISSING

Complete the following sentences with an appropriate word (Use only ONE word in each blank)

1) a) He worked …… a waiter for a year to pay the rent.

b) A: What …… Sara's boyfriend …… ?
B: He's not very nice, I'm afraid.

2) a) A:'Is the concert still going on?'
B:'Yes, it hasn't finished ……..……

b) 'I used to go to his concerts but I no ……..…… like this kind of music'.

3) a) Why don't you go for a walk ……. of sitting here doing nothing?

b) In the end, I didn't go to the gym. Neither ……. I.

4) a) It was …… a good film that I went to see it twice.

b)I liked …… the comic book and the film.

5) a) He is an ignorant man. It is not ..... paying attention to him.

b) What was the name of the passenger ..... passport was stolen?.

6) a) A:I haven't seen John for months.
B: I know, it's been . . . . . since we last saw him.

b) Not only is she polite, she is ..... intelligent.