

The little boy in this story is Very lucky to go camping
With his grandfather who teaches him all about cicadas.

Do you remember a time when you did something with your grandparents or an older family friend like camping or exploring the bush? Write about it and draw a picture of it below.

