

ENGLISH 6

I. Choose the letter of the main idea of each paragraph.

1. There are animals called mammals. They are warm-blooded. They all have some fur or hair on their bodies. The mothers feed their babies milk. They take care of their babies until the babies can care for themselves.
 - a. They are warm-blooded.
 - b. The mothers feed their babies milk.
 - c. There are animals called mammals.
2. Insects have six legs. Spiders have eight legs. Some insects have wings. Spiders do not. Some insects have feelers. Spiders do not. Insects have three main parts in their bodies. Spiders have two. So, there are four main differences between spiders and insects.
 - a. Spiders have eight legs.
 - b. Insects have three main parts to their bodies.
 - c. So, there are four main differences between spiders and insects.
3. Samantha, I can't eat or sleep when you are gone. I need to hear your scratchy voice and see your lovely toothless smile. I miss that special way that you eat soup with your fingers. Please come home soon!
 - a. Samantha, you should see a dentist.
 - b. Samantha, I miss you.
 - c. Samantha, I have lost my appetite.
4. Look up at the sky. You will often see many different kinds of clouds. Clouds can tell you what kind of weather to expect. If they look like large mountains, rain might be on the way. When they are dark and close together, that also means it might rain. Clouds that look light and airy mean good weather.
 - a. Look up at the sky.
 - b. You will often see many different kinds of clouds.
 - c. Clouds can tell you what kind of weather to expect.
5. Soccer is a very fast game. The way it is played is different from any other game. Only one player on each team is allowed to use hands to touch the ball. The other players cannot throw it or pick it up and run with it. They must move the ball along the field by using their feet to kick it. They can also use their head, chest, or leg to keep the ball moving. The players can use any part of their bodies except their hands. Mostly, the players use their feet to kick the ball.

- a. Soccer is a very fast game.
- b. The way it is played is different from any other game.
- c. The players can use any part of their bodies except their hands.

II. Choose the sentence that tells the main idea.

Many animals are called special names when they are young. A baby deer is called a fawn. A baby cat is called a kitten. A baby goat is called a kid while a baby duck is called a duckling.

They are characters in fantasy stories. They have extraordinary powers. They use these powers to protect the public. They sacrifice their lives for people. They are superheroes.

Almost everything that we think is rubbish is useful in some way. Old newspaper can be used again to make more paper. Tin cans and scrap metal can be melted down.

Carlo is an intelligent boy. He loves reading books about legends and myths. He likes Math, too. He gets good grades and often gets medals at the end of the school year.

Have you visited an orphanage before? An orphanage is a center where children without parents are taken care of. Usually, charitable institutions or volunteers give help to these children. Through this institution, abandoned children have a place to call home.