

This is a letter Kylie sent to her friend, Rebecca. Read the letter first, and then complete the activities.

1) I have known my friend Rebecca for ten years. We first met at primary school. At first, we weren't friends. Two years later, we discovered that we both the same music and bands, so I invited Rebecca to come to my house. We listened to music together and soon became best friends.

2) Recently, wevery few things together because we are very busy at school. Weto a concert; Iher at her house and weItalian for 6 months but Ito the course anymore because Ito work. Ito her house yesterday to have dinner with her.

3) Two years ago, I spent a week in hospital and Rebecca(come) to see me everyday. But then, last year Rebecca's father(change) his job, and they moved to another city. Since then, we(not - see) each other very much, but we(talk) on the phone once a week and we(write) e-mails to each other.

1) Multiple Choice

- a. They met in : 2001 - 2010 - 2011
- b. They met when they were: 2 years old - between 6 and 10 years old - 17 years old
- c. They became friends in: 2002 - 2010- 2012
- d. They have been friends for: 10 years - 9 years - 8 years

2) Complete with the missing verbs: have started, have gone, have done, have visited, went, have learned, didn't go

3) Choose the correct Tense: Simple Past or Present Perfect.

4) Adverbs: Circle the correct answer. If two adverbs are possible, click on both.

- a. Have you finished the homework yet?
I have already / just / yet finished the Math, but I haven't finished the History already / just / yet.
- b. Don't touch that wall! My father has already / just / yet painted it!
It's too late! I have already / just / yet touched it!
- c. Would you like something to eat? I haven't prepared anything already / just / yet ,I can cook something for you.
No, thanks. I have already / just / yet eaten a snack.