THE COOPER'S HILL CHEESE ROLLING

LA CARRERA DEL QUESO RODANTE (COLINA DE COOPER)

Cheese-Rolling is an event at a hill, near Gloucester in England.

It is on the Spring Holiday.

There are participants from all over the world.

There are winners coming from the United States, Australia, New Zealand and Nepal.

There are four downhill races – three for men and one for women with a maximum of 14 racers for each.

The Masters of the Ceremony throw the cheese.

The competitors run down the hill after the cheese, the first person who past the finish line is the winner.

The prize is the cheese.

How can you participate?

If you want to participate, go to the top of the hill and tell the organizers. You don't wear your favourite pair of jeans!
