1. Listen and choose YES or No. Track 39

		YES	NO
1.	Justin would get bored if computers didn't exist.	YES	NO
2.	Catherine would have to make less phone calls.	YES	NO
3.	Catherine's boss would probably talk more to his employees.	YES	NO
4.	Justin wouldn't have more real friends.	YES	NO
5.	Catherine would miss her cell phone.	YES	NO

GRAMMAR.

Focus on Grammar | Second Conditional For Unreal or Imaginary Situations

We use Second Conditional to express suppositions or statements contrary to reality.
The If- clause is in the Past Simple and the main clause goes with would + Infinitive.

Example:

If Clause	Main Clause
If I studied	I would pass the test.
Past Simple	WOULD + infinitive

1. Justin would _____ if computers didn't exist.
2. Maybe Justin would _____ more real friends.
3. Catherine would have to _____ more phone calls.
4. Catherine would _____ her cell phone.

Write & Say

Complete the sentences with your own ideas. Say your sentences to your partner.

If I didn't have a cell phone, _____

If computers didn't exist, _____

If there was no Internet, _____

Write sentences for the next situations.
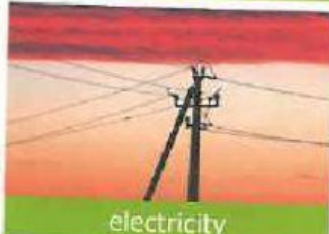

tow truck	washing machines	cars	printers
electricity	credit cards	cell phones	internet

Examples: What would you do if tow trucks didn't exist? - I would use horses to tow a car.

write more	use candles	wash by hand	talk more
pay cash	walk more	use horses	visit friends

1. If cars didn't exist, people would _____
2. If electricity didn't exist, _____
3. People would pay cash if _____
4. People would write more if _____
5. If tow-trucks didn't exist, _____
6. If the Internet didn't exist, _____
7. People would visit friends if _____
8. People would wash by hand if _____