

A LITTLE TINY THING

GRAMMAR

READING

Read and select regular and irregular verbs.

"Oh," you would have heard him say, if you had been clever enough, "I can't get out, I can't get out! I shall lie down and die. Mary went to bed, and in the night the rain poured. The handkerchief was soaked as if somebody had been crying very much, when she went out to fetch it as soon as the sun shone. She remembered who was under the thimble. "I wonder what he is doing," said Mary. But when she lifted up the thimble the little tiny thing lay stiff and still.

VOCABULARY

Join with arrows:

ANTS

THINK

TRY

RUN

FIND

CRITICAL THINKING

What do you think about the story?

Have you ever thought the same about ants? Why?

What do you think is the message of the story?

What would you recommend to your friends after reading the story?

