

V.C.C.E

Fairness

Read each question carefully and tick the box with the correct answer.

1. What is fairness? Fairness is treating others equally.

treating others with no respect.

2. If my brother bought cupcakes for my sister and not me, is that considered fairness?

Yes

No

3. People who treat others with no respect and kindness are practicing fairness.

True

False

4. When we place ourselves in others' shoes and feel compassion for other people we are practicing fairness.

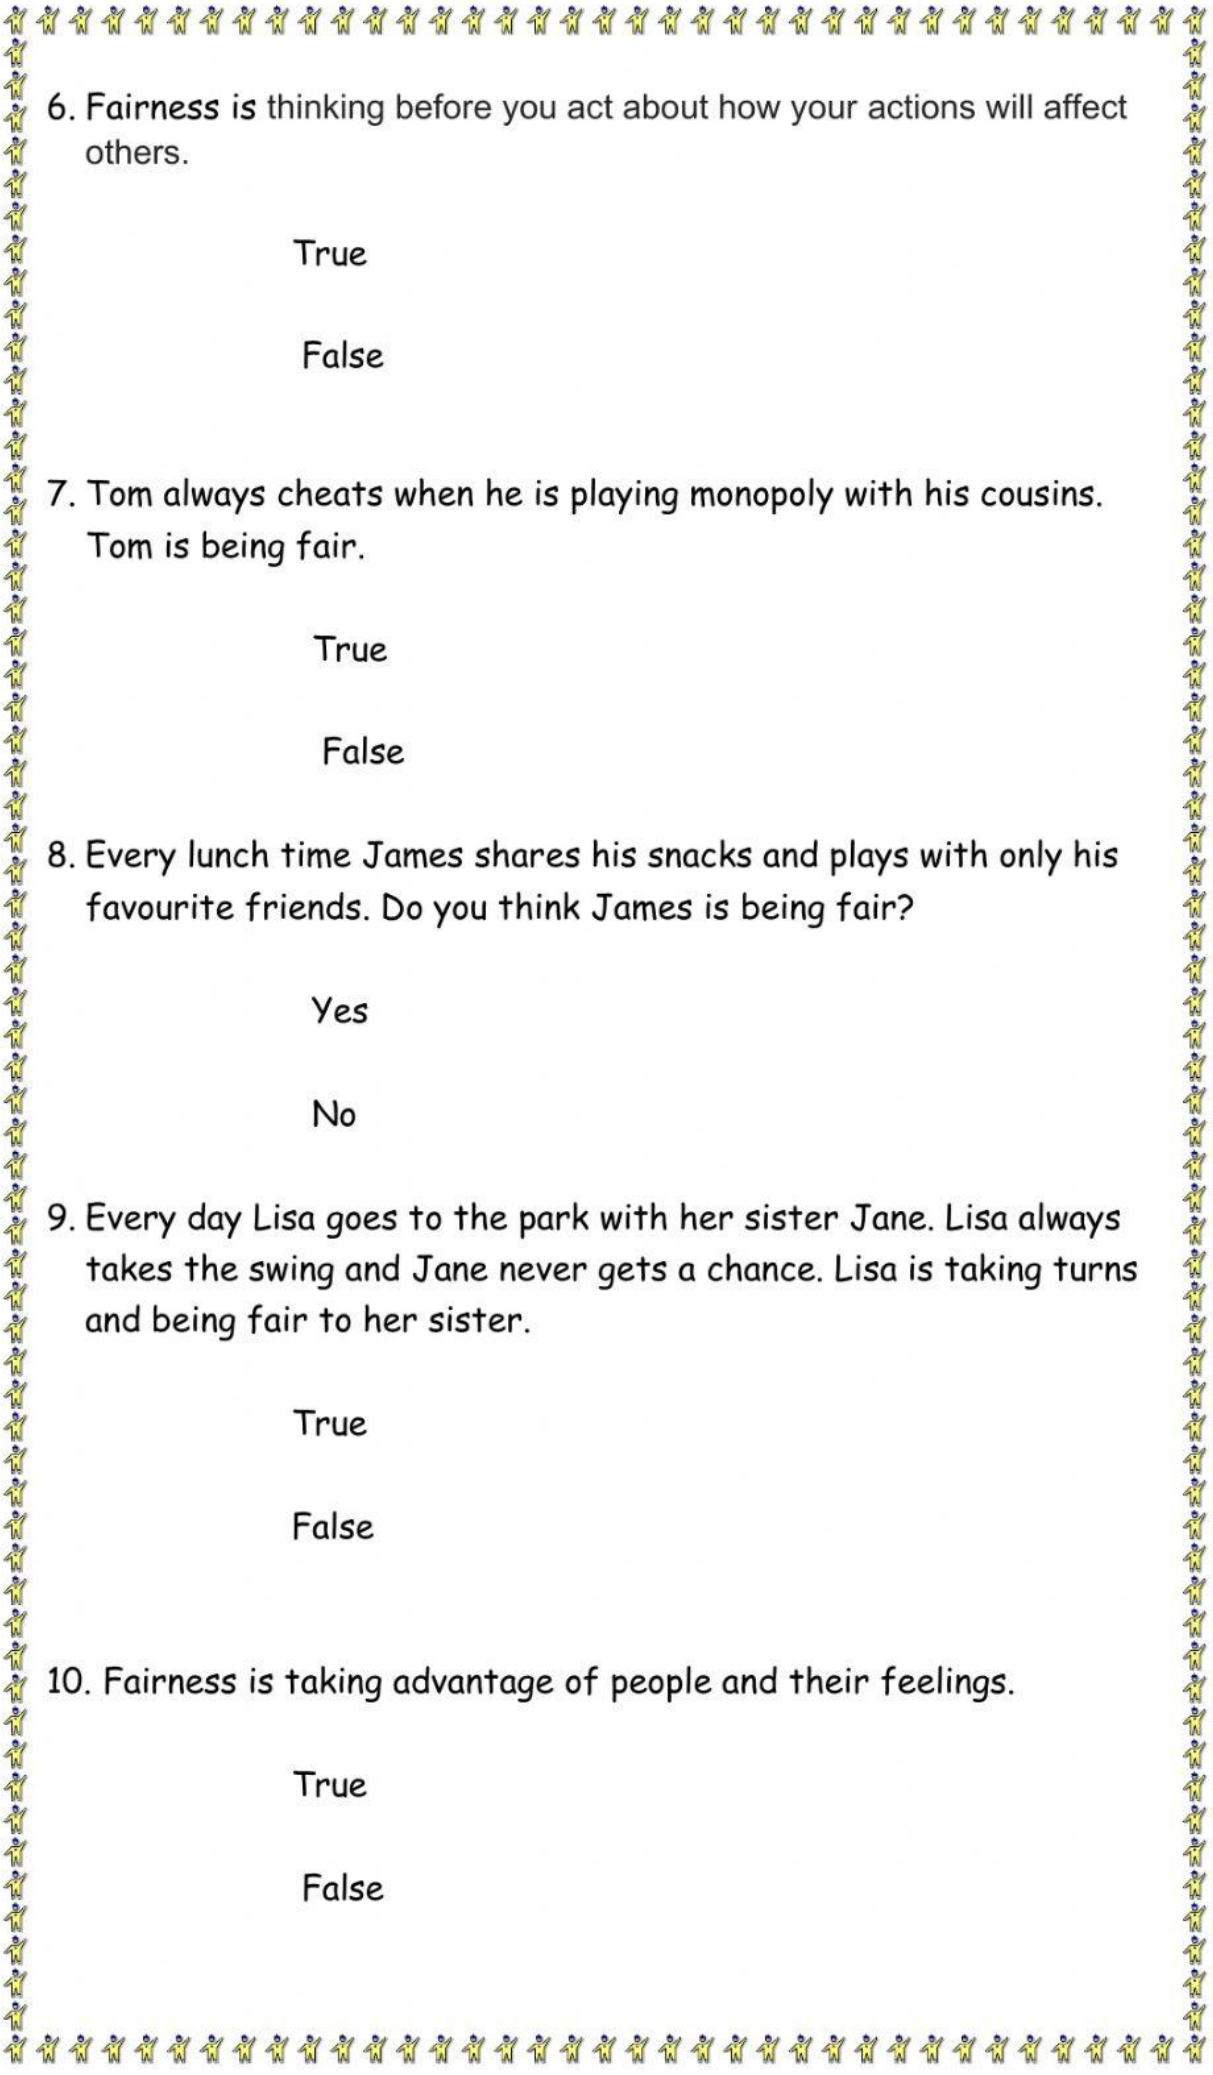

True

False

5. If someone steals something from a store and blames someone else, are they practicing fairness?

Yes

No

6. Fairness is thinking before you act about how your actions will affect others.

True

False

7. Tom always cheats when he is playing monopoly with his cousins. Tom is being fair.

True

False

8. Every lunch time James shares his snacks and plays with only his favourite friends. Do you think James is being fair?

Yes

No

9. Every day Lisa goes to the park with her sister Jane. Lisa always takes the swing and Jane never gets a chance. Lisa is taking turns and being fair to her sister.

True

False

10. Fairness is taking advantage of people and their feelings.

True

False