

YS5 - Test Unit 6

Read and choose the correct option.

1. Thomas Edison was a very famous
2. My grandmother the potatoes and then put salt on them.
3. We were playing football and suddenly the ball went over the
4. My brother wants to become a(n) . He is very good at writing articles.
5. The sun gives to our planet.
6. We use a graph to show
7. My uncle fixes cars. He's a great

Read and complete. Use who/which. Then, match the sentences to the correct words.

1. It is something _____ holds things together.
2. It's a glass building _____ helps people grow plants.
3. It's someone _____ makes films and tells actors what to do.
4. It's someone _____ makes portraits and beautiful pictures.
5. It's a fruit _____ is usually yellow.
6. It's someone _____ fixes people's teeth.
7. It's someone _____ travels to space.
8. It's someone _____ makes new things, like machines.

a. Dentist	<input type="checkbox"/>	d. Greenhouse	<input type="checkbox"/>	g. melon	<input type="checkbox"/>
b. Inventor	<input type="checkbox"/>	e. glue	<input type="checkbox"/>	h. director	<input type="checkbox"/>
c. Painter	<input type="checkbox"/>	f. astronaut	<input type="checkbox"/>

Read the sentences. Drag and drop the words.

slices

moon

space

strange

dark

1. Astronauts travel into _____.
2. The colour of the sea is sometimes _____ blue.
3. At night, you can see the _____ and the stars in the sky.
4. Cut the potatoes into thin _____ and fry them. Your crisps are ready!
5. I was in the garden, when I heard a _____ noise.

Read and choose the correct option.

Hector's Dolphins

Dolphins are very clever, beautiful animals live in seas and oceans all over the world. There are many kinds of dolphins in . The smallest kind is the Hector's dolphin. They in the waters round New Zealand. People can often find them near rivers and in bays. Their body length is between 1.2 and 1.4 m and they up to 50 kg. Hector's dolphins have got grey and white bodies and some black on their faces. They usually live in groups of five and they eat small fish. The Hector's dolphin is an endangered species because there are people throw rubbish in the seas. We must all do something to help!

Read the text in the previous activity and answer the questions.

1. Where do Hector's dolphins live? _____
2. How much do Hector's dolphins weigh? _____
3. What colour are Hector's dolphins? _____
4. What do Hector's dolphins eat? _____

Make sentences. Use who/which.

1. Amelia Earhart / first woman pilot / cross / the Atlantic.

2. Giant pandas / animals / live / in China.

3. Snow leopards / animals / can run fast

4. Douglas Engelbart / engineer / invent / the computer mouse

5. Leonardo Da Vinci / painter / paint / the "Mona Lisa"

Listen and put the pictures in the correct order. Number 1-3. There is one extra picture.

