

Use the senses poem about a relaxing comfortable place below to help you write a senses poem about somewhere you love to go. Make sure you include touch, sight, hearing, smell and taste.

I love to go to the beach
The sand feels hot under my bare feet
I can hear the soft crashing of the waves
I can see so many happy people smiling
I can smell the salt air
I can taste the ice cream I always have when I come to the beach.
