EXERCISE 1 DISCOVER THE GRAMMAR

GRAMMAR NOTES 1–7 Read the sentences based on the reading. Could the underlined quantifiers be replaced with the words in parentheses without changing the basic meaning or creating an incorrect sentence? For each sentence, write Y (Yes) or N (No).

N 1. Students have a limited amount of time. (number)

____ 2. We get twenty-four hours each day. (every)

____ 3. I think I can offer you some reasonable suggestions. (any)

____ 4. Figure out how much time you need to devote to each subject. (many)

____ 5. That may sound like a lot of hours. (a great many)

____ 6. You list the number of hours you have to devote to each task. (amount)

____ 7. Take fewer classes the next time around. (less)

____ 8. People sometimes spend a lot of time writing down what they have to do. (a great deal of)

____ 9. Get started and do a bit of work on your assignment each day. (a little)

____ 10. Many people accomplish little real work when they're interrupted by distractions. (a little)

____ 11. Some people work well in noisy situations. (Any)

____ 12. Any locale where you can study easily will help you succeed in your classes. (Every)