

Primary 5/6
Week 38

The Write Tribe

STORY STRUCTURE: BASIC INGREDIENTS FOR A
SATISFYING CONCLUSION

PART 2

A challenge

SCENARIO

You had practised day and night for your running competition. Halfway through, you fell and scraped your knee. You refused to give up and continued to the finish line with determination.

Logical solution

Show your feelings/ other characters' feelings

Use facial expressions

Lesson learnt + Proverb

Use decision making action verbs

Write out the conclusion

An act of kindness

SCENARIO

You are dog tired from burning the midnight oil for your exams. You want to sleep like a log on one of the MRT seats. An old lady hobbles in. At first, you refuse to give up your seat but seeing her fall made you change your decision.

Logical solution

Use connectors

Show your feelings/ other characters' feelings

Use facial expressions

Lesson learnt + Proverb

Use decision making action verbs

Write out the conclusion

Being responsible

SCENARIO

Your Mom entrusted you with $50 to pick up your Father's birthday cake. You weren't too careful and forgot to zip your backpack. As a result, you lost your wallet.

Logical solution

Show your feelings/ other characters' feelings

Use facial expressions

Lesson learnt + Proverb

Use decision making action verbs

Write out the conclusion

A misunderstanding

SCENARIO

The security guards at the mall are accusing you of stealing a notebook. After profusely checking your bag, they realize you are not the thief!

Logical solution

Show your feelings/ other characters' feelings

Use facial expressions

Lesson learnt + Proverb

Use decision making action verbs

Write out the conclusion

Being grateful / friendship

SCENARIO

You always despised Sally. Why wouldn't you? She's born with a silver spoon in her mouth and she appears to be proud as a peacock. However, when you ran out of ink during your examination, she lent you a hand.

Logical solution

Show your feelings/ other characters' feelings

Use facial expressions

Lesson learnt + Proverb

Use decision making action verbs

Write out the conclusion

