

A. Read the sentences below and replace the words in bold with suitable words from the box.

participate	close connection	program of studies	developed require	made	not voluntary	help

1. American schools demand that their students help their community.
2. All high school students take part in compulsory community service.
3. When the service is compulsory, students do not learn the true meaning of giving to others.
4. I have grown as a person.
5. A true bond is hard to form.
6. Some volunteers assist the elderly.
7. There are schools which include compulsory community service in the curriculum.
8. When students are forced to help others, you can't call "volunteering".

B. Choose the correct word or expression to complete the sentences below:

1. Our teacher expects many students to participate in / interrupt her lessons.
2. It is disappointing / heartwarming to learn that so many people want to volunteer.
3. I found it difficult to identify / part with the main character.
4. Speaking excellent English is a suggestion / requirement for this job.
5. Bill was asked to take part in / take apart the new program.
6. Happily, Jane promised to contribute / assist us in any way possible.
7. Serving in the army is compulsory / confusing in some countries.
8. It saddens me to read about the slavery / freedom of helpless people.
9. Fortunately, there are students who feel that compulsory community service is a worthless / worthwhile experience.
10. I share a strong bond / break with my siblings.