

Paul Cezanne

Paul Cézanne, (____ - ____), was a painter from _____. He was one of the greatest of the Post-Impressionists, whose works and ideas were influential in the visual development of many 20th-century artists and art movements, especially Cubism. The invention of _____ made it easy for the Impressionist artists to make their work _____. They used bright natural colors without _____.

Impressionism

Post -Impressionism

Cubism

Cézanne thought form and color should not be separate. He applied color with _____ brushstrokes that gradually make parts of the painting look _____. His landscapes, _____, and portraits break with the traditional look of space and strive to capture in painting the shapes of objects. (geometric, still, life, flat, 1909, black, 1838, France, tubes, outside)

