

2 Read the mini-conversations. Write P (prediction) or F (fact).

- 1 A: Mum won't want to walk through forests.
 B: I know! She always worries about getting lost! P
- 2 A: Let's climb the mountain in the summer.
 B: The days will be longer then.
- 3 A: Did you know, every summer, the Lost Lake in Oregon disappears down a hole?
 B: So we won't be able to go swimming there when it's hot!
- 4 A: I don't think we should walk along the cliffs.
 B: You're right. It'll be really dangerous.
- 5 A: Have you heard of a man called Ben Hooper? He says he's planning to swim across the Atlantic!
 B: You're joking! I don't believe he'll do it.

3 Look at the photos. Write questions and short answers with the prompts below. There is one extra prompt.

~~he / walk / through the forest~~
 she / swim / in the lake they / climb / the hill
 we / walk / on the beach you / explore / the island

1 Will he walk through the forest?
No, he won't.

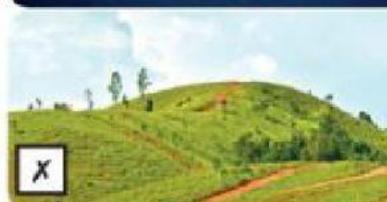

2

3

4

4 Write sentences and questions with will and the prompts. Then match them to the sentences below.

1 it / be / cold in the valley

It will be cold in the valley. e

2 he / climb / the mountain easily / ?

3 I / make / a picnic

4 it / not take / long to drive around the island

5 you / go / in the water today / ?

a I think it's quite small.

b No, I won't! I never swim in the sea!

c Yes, I think he knows Aconcagua very well.

d We can't spend a day at the beach without food!

~~e I don't think they get much sun down there!~~
