

IDIOMS

Revision: Colors

A. Write an idiom with a color that matches the definition.

special honors: _____

feel sad: to _____

unexpectedly: _____

jealous: _____

written; clear & easy to understand: _____

have money: _____

complicated official procedures: _____

in debt: _____

permission to do sth: _____

"insignificant" lie: to tell _____

Food

B. Complete the following sentences using one word connected with food

A: Please help me. I'm in a 1) _____. I have to submit a paper tomorrow but my computer's just crashed.

B: Calm down. Let me have a look at it. A piece of 2) _____. It's the battery. Look.

A: No. That's 3) _____. Are you pulling my leg? That computer's brand new. I've had it for just a month. I didn't pay 4) _____ for it.

B: Well... Maybe, you bought a 5) _____. Get in touch with Customer Service.

A: I certainly will. Now I need to get a battery!

I'm sure he went 6) _____ when he heard he had been nominated for the Nobel prize, but I thought something 7) _____ was going on because he had never done anything really significant. He must have been 8) _____ the moment he learned he had not even been considered!

There's no doubt he'll win. He'll 9) _____ the opposition.

Tom was the perfect gentleman, patient, kind and well-liked. Yeah. He was a 10) _____ of a guy and his wife was the 11) _____ of his eye and the love of his life!

C. Which one means...? Write the numbers in the boxes.

Be in trouble _____

Beat _____

Crazy _____ (usually out of excitement)

Easy to do _____

Favorite person _____

Nice person _____

Nonsense _____

Small amount of $ _____

Sth that does not work _____

Suspicious, not right, dishonest _____

Upset _____

BONUS POINTS: And now... some more! Which one do you think is right? Write the word in the blank.

1) Don't stay inside and become a couch _____

a) tomato

b) potato

2) He'll figure it out. He's a smart _____

a) cookie

b) bread

3) Who should be vaccinated first? That's _____ for thought.

a) food

b) meat

4) The 2 candidates are like chalk and _____

a) oil

b) cheese

5) He'll like it. I know. We're two _____ in a pod.

a) pies

b) peas

6) Painting is not my cup of _____.

a) tea

b) coffee

7) Such a success. It's been selling like hot _____

a) buns

b) cakes

8) Don't cry over spilt/spilled _____

a) water

b) milk

9) Keep calm. Take it with a pinch of _____

a) salt

b) pepper

10) In a _____, there are many more idioms to learn!

A) nutshell

b) peanut

Comments:

I hope you did well! :)