

Isabella's Clothes

Isabella will go many places this summer, her first stop is the cays, she will need _____ to go in the water. She is studying to be a scientist. Which category of clothes will she find clothes to work?

Before school holidays began she was a member of the football team. She wore _____ for her games. When she got home, Isabella would change out of her sports jersey and relax in _____ before putting on her pajamas. She relaxed herself looking at prom dresses for next year when she graduates. Do you know which category she was looking at?

Being an athletic person, nightgowns are not her style, but she loves her character pajamas which are grouped as _____. Halloween is near, so she wants to dress up as a fairy and hope to find this in the _____ section on her next shopping trip. Every month they must visit the _____ section because her little 5 year old sister outgrows her clothes quickly.

Isabella's aunt who is a ballerina is expecting her first child in 2 months, she no longer wears _____ but finds _____ is more comfortable as it is roomy allowing her bump to grow..

For winter, Isabella will travel to South America and has to pack bulky _____ as the weather can be harsh. But, she does look forward to returning so she can go back to playing football, she always makes sure her sports bra and _____ have a comfortable fit and support her during activities.