

■ Select the name of each body part.

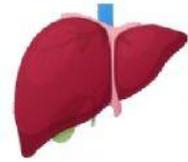

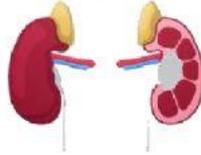

■ Write the name of the different parts of the face.

■ Drag and drop each part to its correct position.

Choose the name of these organs.

Select "living or non-living thing" and write why you know it.

Non-living thing

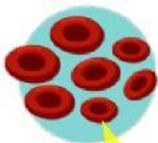

Living thing

Non-living thing

Living thing

Complete the structure of the body.

■ Select the life process in each picture.

- Nutrition
- Relation
- Reproduction

■ Tick in which life process happens.

Nutrition Relation Reproduction

- Living things get information through their senses.
- Living things eat food, which contains nutrients.
- Living things have offspring similar to their parents.

■ Match with the stages of life.

- | | | |
|--|---|---------------|
| Our bodies and minds stop working so well. | ● | ● Gestation |
| During the first twelve or thirteen years of our life we grow from babies to children. | ● | ● Childhood |
| Your bodies are ready to have children. | ● | ● Adolescence |
| We are in our mother's womb. | ● | ● Adulthood |
| Between thirteen and twenty years old our body is transformed. | ● | ● Old stage |

■ Name the different stages of life.

