

DAILY ROUTINE AND PRESENT SIMPLE

1- Listen to Fred again. Then imagine what he likes/ doesn't like doing .

ex : Fred likes walking to school

.....

.....

.....

.....

2 – Fill in the wh – questions grid :

Where.... ?	Où... ?
When.... ?
What... ?
How... ?
How often.... ?
How old... ?
What time.... ?
How many.... ?

3 – Create wh questions in the 2nd and 3rd person singular ex : what – you – have for breakfast => what do you have for breakfast ?

What – Fred – have for breakfast => what does Fred have for breakfast ?

1 – How – you – go to school =>

How – Fred – go to school =>

2 – Where – you – live =>

Where – Fred – live =>

3 – How often – you – eat at school =>

How often – Fred – eat at school =>

4 – How many lessons – you – have before lunch =>

How many lessons – Fred – have before lunch =>

5 – When – you – watch TV =>

When – Fred – watch TV =>

6 – What time – you – go back home =>

What time – Fred – go back home =>

To form a question in the present simple, we use the auxiliary (for : I, you, we, they) and (for : he, she, it). When we use the auxiliary , the verb is in the infinitive form.