

MIDTERM EXAM: OCTOBER 2020

A. READ THE TEXT. ARE THESE SENTENCES TRUE OR FALSE?

The Eurovision Song Contest

Every year on a Saturday night in May, something special happens in Europe. Millions of people turn on their TVs to watch a national competition. But this competition has no footballs, athletes or fast cars. It is something much more important: finding the perfect pop song!

Eurovision is an enormous concert full of fireworks, wonderful dancing and shiny clothes. Oh, and pop songs, of course! Each participating country sends a singer or group to perform a song at the Eurovision semi-final. Then they choose twenty-six for the Saturday-night Grand Final.

After the shows at the Grand Final, each country votes for the best song. TV viewers can vote using their mobile phones, but each country also has an official jury who decide 50 per cent of the votes. In the end, the song with the most votes wins.

The competition's central rule is that each song must be three minutes long. Also, the maximum number of people on the stage is six. Songs can be in any language, but most countries choose to sing in English. Some of the most famous winners are the Swedish super-group ABBA and Céline Dion.

Millions of viewers in the USA and many other countries watch the Grand Final. Organisations in certain countries like China and Qatar are interested in participating in the competition. So, who knows? Perhaps governments will find international unity through three-minute pop songs!
