1. WOMAN: What are you doing?

BOY: We're learning to do different sports. Some of us are learning to climb, some are learning to skate and some are learning to fish. WOMAN: And there are some children over there who are learning to sail.

BOY: Yes, the boy who's sitting at the front of the boat is my brother Jim.

2. WOMAN: Who's that?

BOY: Who?

WOMAN: The girl who's helping the boy to skate.

BOY: That's Daisy.

3. WOMAN: And who's the boy learning to ride his bike?

BOY: The one who's with his older sister?

WOMAN: Yes, that's right.

BOY: That's Fred.

4. WOMAN: Who's that climbing up the wall?

BOY: The boy who's near the top?

WOMAN: No, the slower girl who's with him.

BOY: That's Jane. She's my cousin.

5. WOMAN: So, who's the boy swimming in the lake?

BOY: That's Jack. He's a good swimmer.

WOMAN: Yes, he is.

6. WOMAN: Now, there are two children over there fishing. Who are they?

BOY: The boy's called Peter. He's good at fishing. He knows you must be quiet to fish.
