What are they like?

John tells jokes all the time and he makes people laugh.

Sabina helps poor children. She gives them presents or money and she helps them with their schoolwork.

Adam likes people and he has a lot of friends. He takes time to talk to them and be nice to them.

Gino always talks about himself and things he does and things he has in a very proud way.

Tina does all her homework very carefully and precisely. She also does all the extra work the teacher gives her.

Jacob always tells others what to do.

Alfie often helps older people. He goes shopping for them and he cuts the grass in their garden.

Theo never tells lies, never steals and never cheats.

If you hang out with Chloe, you're never bored. She wears unusual clothes and does exciting, special things.

Poppy doesn't like to do any work. She doesn't do her homework, she only watches TV.

Billy never stops talking. He talks to everyone about everything.

Daisy screams a lot and she can never talk quietly.

Edward is interested in music. He even plays three instruments.

Joe is good at learning and thinking. What he says always makes sense.

Ethan rarely talks. He usually makes very little noise.

Victoria is not fun to be around. She never says anything interesting.

Rhys doesn't like to meet and talk to new people.

Sarah doesn't respect other people. She uses bad language. She even calls people names.

Megan is always pleased when visitors come to her home. She invites them in and offers them food and drinks.

Linda never puts her things away. Her room is very dirty and untidy.

Charlie doesn't care about other people, only about himself. He doesn't share things.

Freddy doesn't pay attention to what he does. He makes a lot of mistakes.

Liam helps other people. He says thank you and you're welcome.
