

Read the passages and answer

Animal habitats

Different animals live in different places. These places are called habitats.

1  grass	2 	a Crocodiles like the sun and water. They like swimming. They live in rivers in Africa. It's very sunny in Africa. Crocodiles eat fish and small animals.
3  polar bear	4  panda bamboo	b Pandas don't like very hot weather or very cold weather. They live in forests in China. They like climbing trees in the forest. Pandas eat bamboo.
 seal		c Kangaroos like the sun and long grass. They live in Australia. It's sunny there and there's a lot of long grass. Kangaroos eat grass and roots.
		d Polar bears like cold weather and the snow. They like swimming in the sea. They live in the Arctic, near the sea. It's very cold there and there's lots of snow. Polar bears eat fish and seals.

Example:

- A) Where do crocodiles live?
They live in rivers in Africa.
- B) Do they eat big animals?
No, they don't.

1- Where do pandas live?

2- Do they eat bamboo?

3- Where do kangaroos live?

4- Do they eat fish and seals?

5- Where do polar bears live?

6- Do they eat grass and roots?