

Comprehension

Elements of a story

THE PLOT

The plot of the story is basically what happens in the story. It is the events that make the story interesting and moves the story along to its end.

THE CHARACTERS are who the story is mostly about. They can be people or animals.

THE SETTING is where, when the story mostly takes place. The surroundings where the characters are.

THE PLOT is how the story happens. It is how we go from the beginning, to the middle and then the end. It is the problems and solutions in a story.

