

For each hydrogen and helium isotope, determine the mass number by adding the number of protons and neutrons

