

The origins of Halloween

When most people think of Halloween, they think of "Trick-or-treating", _____ bobbing for _____ and other family-friendly activities. Halloween dates back from _____ years ago. The original _____ festival was called _____ It was celebrated on _____ 1st. On the night before, people believed that the _____ returned as _____ They left _____ and wine on their doorsteps to keep roaming _____ away. They wore _____ when they left their houses to be mistaken for ghosts. The Christian Church turned Samhain in All Saints' Day or All Hallows in the _____ th century.

The night before became All Hallows' Eve later shortened into _____. You put a trick or treating on Halloween. What about _____ or _____ ? All three of these _____ traditions originated in Medieval Britain. On All Souls' Day, November 2nd, the needy would bake _____ known as soul cakes. In return, they would pray for people's dead relatives. This was called souling.

In the Medieval Halloween tradition of guising, young people would _____ in costumes and accept _____ _____ _____ and other offering in exchange for singing, reciting poetry of telling jokes.

In 19th century _____, _____ and Scottish immigrants revived these old traditions: the result was _____

