

Countable and Uncountable nouns: A lot of, some, a few, a little

Countable nouns	Uncountable nouns
How many eggs do you need?	How much flour do you have?
I need a lot of eggs.	I have a lot of flour.

I need some eggs.	I have some flour.

I need a few eggs.	I have a little flour.

I don't need any eggs.	I don't have any flour.

1) Complete the questions with How much and How many.

- ..... oranges do you have in the basket?
- ..... sugar do you like in your tea?
- ..... juice do you drink in one day?
- ..... onions do you need to cook dinner?
- ..... meat do you and your family eat?
- ..... apples are there in the kitchen?
- ..... bottles of water can you carry?
- ..... chocolate do you eat in a week?
- ..... slices of bread do you have for breakfast?
- ..... milk do you need to make a cake?

2) Complete the answers with a lot of, a little, a few or any.

1) There are ..... apples.
2) We don't eat ..... meat. We are vegetarian.
3) I can carry ..... bottles. I'm very strong.
4) I need ..... onions.
5) I have ..... oranges in my basket. It is very heavy!
6) I just need ..... milk for the cake.
7) I like ..... sugar in my tea. I don't like sweet things.
8) I don't have ..... slices of bread for breakfast. I eat cereals and fruits.
9) I eat ..... chocolate. I prefer eating biscuits.
10) I drink ..... orange juice. It is my favourite!

3) Match the questions in Ex. 1 with the answers in Ex. 2

Questions	Answers
A	5
B
C
D
E
F
G
H
I
J	