
Part 1: Use the words below to complete the sentences about the steps of the water cycle.

Sun

Runoff

Groundwater

Rivers

Transpiration

Circle

Evaporation

Precipitation

Condensation

Water falls from clouds when it rains. This is called _____. The water then flows across Earth's surface as _____ into oceans, _____, and lakes. Some water seeps below the surface between soil particles and rock layers and is called _____. The _____ heats water and it goes into the air in a process called _____. Water also goes into the air from leaves in a process called _____. The water vapor in the air cools and forms water droplets in clouds. This is called _____. The water cycle keeps moving in a _____.