

Animals - Classification

1. Complete with the class of the animals.

Mammals	Birds	Reptiles	Amphibians	Fish
---------	-------	----------	------------	------

2. Complete the sentences with the class of the animals.

a. Snakes are

b. Zebras are

c. Macaws are

d. Monkeys are

e. Sharks are

f. Frogs are

g. Flamingos are

h. Crocodiles are

i. Lions are

j. Elephants are

3. Match the classes with the descriptions.

These animals live in the water as they can breathe underwater. They have scales and fins.

Mammals

These animals can live both in the land and in the water. Most of them passes through a metamorphosis.

Birds

These animals have scaled skin. They cannot breathe underwater; the ones that live in the water come to the surface to breathe.

Fish

These animals are the only ones who have feathers. They have two legs and wings, but not all of them can fly.

Amphibians

These animals have fur or hair; some have more than others. They feed their babies milk.

Reptiles

4. Complete the table. Follow the example

	habitat	skin	class
Penguin	Polar region	feathers	birds
Lion
Fish		scales
Snake			reptiles
Monkey	forest
Parrot
Polar bear		fur	