

Exercise 2.1 Statements

Unscramble the words and add you to write sentences that give advice.
Sometimes more than one answer is possible.

1. decide what you want from a job / should / really / .

You really should decide what you want from a job. / You should really decide what you want from a job.

2. had better / think about the hours you prefer / really / .

3. ought to / decide if you want to be on call 24-7 / perhaps / .

4. maybe / look for job advertisements online / should / .

5. tell your family about your plans / ought to / probably / .

6. really / shouldn't / get discouraged / .

7. should / ask for advice from a career counselor / I think / .

8. really / take a job you don't like / had better not / !