

Week One

Name: _____

Date: _____

1. Drag the names to match the pictures on the pictures.

Crab

Spiny Lobster

Krill

2. Look at the pictures above. Which group of invertebrates do the animals belong to? Click on the answer.

A. arthropods B. mollusks C. sponges D. stinging cell animals

3. State ONE characteristic of the group of animals shown above. Click on TWO answers.

A. ____ They are vertebrates.

B. ____ They have an exoskeleton.

C. ____ They reproduce by laying eggs.

D. ____ Young crustaceans do not look like their parents.

4. What is an exoskeleton? Write True or False in the box.

An exoskeleton is a hard outer covering. _____

5. What is the importance of the exoskeleton? Click on the answer.

☐ The exoskeleton kills the animals.

☐ The exoskeleton protects the animals organs.

☐ The exoskeleton does not protect the animals

6. In class, the kids watched a video of the crab shedding its exoskeleton. What is the process called when animals shed their exoskeleton? Click on the answer.

☐ melting

☐ molting

☐ mincing

7. Name ONE native Bahamian dish where crab is the main ingredient.

8. What would happen if the spiny lobsters were not protected by law? Click on TWO answers.

☐ They would not have time to reproduce.

☐ They would die immediately.

☐ There would not be enough time for young lobsters to grow/mature.