Vlad had seen a _____ of a skateboard in his Jollywood Academy book and had decided to copy it. He had used a _____ and some little _____ from Mulch's cupboard. His _____ had beautiful swirls and stars, he loved it.

Vlad's room was in the _____, away from the rest of the house so he could make as much noise as he liked while he was zipping in his huge room while his family was in their coffins. Vlad hid his skateboard from his parents behind his coffin.

Vlad practiced _____ several times but each time he plummeted to the floor so refused to continue to learn how to fly and decided to _____.

_____ had a brilliant idea so they spend hours talking about Flit's plan. They knew that Drax gets _____ easily. Drax went to see if Vlad had turned into a bat but Flit pretended to be _____ while Vlad was hiding inside of the _____. Flit flied faster and faster around Drax's head to make him dizzy. Drax couldn't see Flit properly so he believed him. Suddenly the dizziness got the better of him and Drax fell to the ground in a heap.

Vlad took his skateboard and his _____ before running away. He wore a cape with a _____ to protect his pale face from the sunlight.

Flit and Vlad went through the tombstones and down the hill to the town. Vlad was nervous so he tried to distract himself by remembering the best bits of Jollywood Academy.

When they finally arrived to the pavement, Vlad hopped on his skateboard, pushing off with one foot and _____ past houses and shops. He didn't have worry about flying now!
