Past Tense

Rule 1

Verbs use tenses to tell when something happens. When the action happens in the past, it is past tense.

One way to make a verb past tense is to add ed to the end.

Example: Sarah jumped on the bed.

	The girl _____ to the music.
	The boy _____ a strike.
	The girl _____ up and down.
	The boy _____ with the cars.
	The boys _____ the ball.

danced	bowled	kicked
played	jumped	painted
