

Read the sentences and drag the pictures to the correct space.

1. The library is between the park and the department store.
2. The post office is across from the department store.
3. The movie theater is across from the park.
4. The supermarket is between the movie theater and the post office.

