

Think of one suitable Word which can be used appropriately in all three sentences.

- The film was very _____ and nearly everyone shed a tear.
 - _____ house can be a stressful experience unless you plan it carefully.
 - I looked at the injured dog carefully, and it didn't seem to be _____.
-
- The dish was quite tasty but rather _____, and would have benefitted from some sort of sauce.
 - I use a special shampoo for _____ hair which seems to give it more shine.
 - The weather forecast says it will be _____ today with occasional showers.
-
- Her lack of self-confidence is reflected in the rather _____ colours she chooses to wear.
 - It was a _____ speech and some of the audience lost interest and left before the end.
 - The sharp pain in her back had subsided to a _____ ache.
-
- He has a heart _____ so he has to take things easy.
 - My aunt is 85, and in no _____ to travel round the world.
 - One _____ of the job is that you should be able to work at night.
-
- Doctors are now able to _____ stomach ulcers quite successfully with drugs.
 - She chose to _____ his comment as a joke which was in rather poor taste.
 - They _____ the material with a chemical that makes it more resistant to fire.